LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section, light local showers to-day or to-night, followed by fair weather Wednesday, southwesterly winds, slightly warmer, except in southeastern Virginia stationary temperature.

LANDED IN A TREE TOP.—Miss Pearl La Roy, the aeronaut at Bethesda Park, near Georgetown, had quite an exciting experience last night. She had made an ascension to some four or five thousand feet before cutting loose, and had chosen a field in which to drop, but the wind carried her off and gently deposited her on the uppermost branch of a tall tree about two miles from the starting place. Searching parties which were sent out were unable to locate her until about 10 o'clock, and after considerable difficulty she was lowered to the ground with ropes. Fortunately she was not injured. Apropos of the above, it is said that an Alexandrian at River View two weeks ago, while in a venturesome mood, took a seat on the bar of the balloon in which the lady aeronaut was to make her ascension. The attendants, in order to perpetrate a practical joke, loosened the ropes and allowed the air ship to ascend. The "passenger" grew frantic and cried lustily to be pulled back to mother earth, vehemently asserting he would jump if his appeals were ignored. To his intense gratification the balloon was finally landed and he was rescued from the perilous position. He was in a much more sedate frame of mind than when he straddled the bar of the aerial car, doubtless convinced that there are other ways to be avoided as well as those where perils are compounded to steal away our brains.

GEN. FIELD IN CULPEPER.—General James G. Field, the people's party candidate, spoke on the court-green at Culpeper yesterday to a small and unsympathetic audience. He introduced himself as a candidate for the office of Governor. His speech consisted almost entirely of a denunciation of the democratic party of which he was a former member, but which for some time past has refused to give him office. Col. J. C. Gibson, of Culpeper, and Mr. Jas. T. Jeffries, of Fauquier, were among the audience and requested Gen. Field to divide time with them but he refused on the ground that it would be beneath the dignity of a candidate for the Vice Presidency to discuss issues with them. Congressmen Bryan and Mansur were invited to and expected to speak at Culpeper yesterday, but failed to reach there. It is said that Gen. Field will get three votes in Culpeper—those of his two brothers and his own.

DANCING PARTY.—The young ladies who are summering at Clarion, on Seminary Hill, Misses Esther and Lucy Brooks, Kilbourne and Sinclair—gave a dance last evening to some of their friends in this city. The beautiful grounds were made more attractive by hammocks and tete-a-tete chairs, and chairs from different parts of the lawn testified to the thorough enjoyment of the guests. Refreshments were served during the evening, and after a merry dance the guests departed regretting that the delightful evening had so soon been brought to a close. Those invited were: Mrs. George Fowle, Misses Nina Johns, Evie Prescott, Sallie and Rebecca Daingerfield, Mary Bell, Fanny Davis, Lida Wattles, Judge J. K. M. Norton, Dr. Wm. M. Smith, Messrs. E. C. and C. C. Dunn, G. H. Norton, Jr., W. Taylor, D. Stuart, M. M. Davis, G. L. Boothe, L. L. Greene, A. Bryan, H. and K. Daingerfield, C. Kilbourne, W. A. Joly, G. Carter and Albert Murchison.

IMITATING DOT ZELNO.—A promising "funnel-town" youth, who had on several occasions from "Windmill Hill" watched the exploits of Munc. Zelno in cutting loose from a balloon at a high altitude while hovering over River View and descending to terra firma under a parachute, conceived the idea of making a descent from the west end of the Wilkes street tunnel on Saturday. He improvised a parachute from a family umbrella and after mounting the wall spread his canopy and jumped. The "parachute" didn't work "worth a cent," and the ambitious youth in a second's time was in a posterior position on the track below, tangled up in the umbrella, and like Mr. Spencer's pupil, screwing his knuckles in both eyes. He had descended between twenty-five and thirty feet, and, though considerably jarred, was not seriously hurt.

A TUG BURNED.—The tugboat Leonidas, belonging in Georgetown, caught fire in the river opposite Marshall Hall at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was nearly destroyed. The men on board, in a tug, when the flames broke out succeeded in running the boat ashore and making their escape. Then the Leonidas, which was at the landing, steamed over to the Leonidas and succeeded in putting out the fire by means of the apparatus which she carries, but not until the Leonidas was burned to the water's edge. The damage to the tug was about $1,000. Yesterday evening the burned tug was taken in charge by a government tug and towed to this city where she was run into Mr. Aitchison's dock and made fast where last night she sunk.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY.—The line of the electric railway from this city to Mount Vernon has been changed in the southern part of the city so as to continue straight down Royal street extended from the corner of Franklin to Hunting creek, instead of taking a southwesterly course across Yates's Garden. The work of grading the line is being pushed by Mr. Breen, who has charge of the work, and who says he will make an average of 1,500 yards daily. The piles for constructing the bridge over Hunting creek have arrived at the mouth of that creek, and the work of constructing the bridge will at once be commenced by Mr. Rogers, the contractor.

INSTALLATION.—At a regular meeting of Refuge Council, Sons of Jonadab, held last night, the following officers were installed by the D. S. C., W. H. Cocker, of Washington; P. C., L. D. Lyles; W. C., George Hantman; V. C., Edgar Thompson; R. S., B. R. Foley; F. S., Chas. M. Hancock; Treasurer, J. W. Griffin; P. D. Robert; G. W. R. Burham; A. G., M. Cheshire; I. W., Charles Watkins; O. W., M. L. Penn; Representative to Sovereign Council, which meets in Washington September

18th, 1892. L. D. Lyles and Charles M. Hancock. Visitors from Good Will, Hope and Rescue Councils, of Washington, were present at the meeting.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late John Wright Waters took place from Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment at 10 o'clock this morning, and was conducted by Robert E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans. Mr. Waters was mate of the steamer Geo. Law at the time of his death. He was a native of Appomattox county, Va., and served in the Confederate army during the war and had been in Providence Hospital but three days. His death came quite suddenly. The pall bearers were P. F. Gorman, John Clark, Andrew Sullivan, J. Archie Hammerly, John Nightingall and M. S. Parker.

PIANO REMOVED.—A piano dealer came here to-day from Washington in search of a piano which he said he had recently sold a man in that city on the installment plan, but who, after making one payment, had surreptitiously removed the instrument from his home and sent it here, where he had disposed of it. The police soon succeeded in locating the piano in a second-hand establishment, the proprietor of which had purchased it in good faith. The Washington dealer will take legal steps to recover his property.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with one prisoner and no lodgers at the station house. The following cases were disposed of at the Mayor's office to-day: Elias Pines, colored, assault on Johnson Higgins, $1.50 and costs. A small white boy for throwing stones in a Chinese laundry, was released on condition that he should be punished by his father.

SUITS DISMISSED.—The suit which Miss Goings recently brought against the city for damages for personal injuries which she claimed she sustained by falling over an obstruction on the sidewalk near the Opera House some time since, was to-day dismissed on motion of Corporation Attorney Breen.

SHOT A BRAKEMAN.—At Barboursville, Orange county, on Saturday night a man named Tiesdale got on a freight train on the Midland road, and as it is against the rules for passengers to ride on freight trains he was put off. In retaliation Tiesdale shot one of the brakemen inflicting, however, but a slight wound.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Frank Clason has gone to Charlottesville, Va., on a visit. Mrs. E. A. Reed, who has been quite sick in Philadelphia for some time, has returned, only slightly improved in health.

I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman."
